Student Directories -Lexie has compiled the student directories and we're ready to email them out upon request! Please send either of us an email requesting the class(es) that you'd like (mcmillank@msd281.org and lhamma@msd281.org).

Children's Matinee Series - The Village Cinemas at Eastside Marketplace is once again offering the winter movie series. Series tickets (8 films for $5) are sold in our school office. Films run Saturdays & Sundays at 10:30 a.m. starting on January 21st. $1 of each series ticket sold is kept by the school and goes towards our International Day celebration fund.

Father/Daughter Breakfast - Our generous and supportive PAT is hosting another free father/daughter breakfast this Wednesday, February 15th from 7:15 - 8:15 a.m. The menu this time will be: blueberry bagels, scrambled eggs, hash brown, orange slices, juice, milk, and coffee. We hope you can join us for this special event!

Color War Day - The next Student Council dress up day will take place on Thursday, February 16th and it is a color war! Each grade level is assigned a color to wear to school that day: kindergarten - tie-dye; 1st grade - green; 2nd grade - black; 3rd grade - white; 4th grade - blue; 5th grade - pink. Have fun!

Bulletin Board Help - Our amazing Library Aide, Mrs. Fereday, is looking for a volunteer parent to help keep up her bulletin boards in the library each month. If you have any extra time (and a bit of creativity), please email her to help (feredayj@msd281.org). Thank you!

Reading is the Ticket Program - This week your child will be bringing home a reading log form for the Reading is the Ticket program. If you choose to participate, your child needs to log ten

(10) hours of reading outside of school (any kind of reading counts!) between now and Monday, March 20th when the forms are due to their teacher. Participating students will receive a ticket for free admission to Silverwood Theme Park at the end of the school year! We'll have additional reading logs in the office if you need them!

LENA Way Students - Congratulations to the following students who were nominated and selected to be our LENA Way recipients for the month of January: Carter Higginbotham, Jorja Taff, Isaac Carter, Ginny Saunders, Nora Saunders, Colin Murphy, Marcus Swift, Ben Hawley, Carlee Swanson, Wyatt Hartig, Terry Carson, Rose Becker, Kyrstin Ailor, Rinad Mohammed, Kamilla Brown, Everly Moore, and Clara Higginbotham! These students will join Mrs. Raney, Mr. Briggs, and myself for lunch this Wednesday in the library. They will also receive a certificate at the luncheon. We are so proud of our students who model the LENA Way every day throughout the entire school! Great job! ☺

Elementary Science Fair - The 2017 Science Fair is almost here! All Moscow students from kindergarten to fifth grade are invited to participate in the Science Fair. Students should select projects that match their interests and abilities. This voluntary activity should be fun and interesting and provide a chance for parents and students to work together. Prizes will be awarded to fifth-grade students for best overall project ($300), and for honorable mention, best display, and most original idea ($100). Registration is open until March 6. To register your child go to: <http://media.msd281.org/sciencefair>
